

12 November 1964

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with established custom, I hereby submit my resignation as The Deputy Director of Central Intelligence to become effective at your pleasure.

Respectfully yours,

Marshall S. Carter
Lieutenant General USA
Deputy Director

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Note: Mr. Mc Carver sent exactly the same letter, same date, hand carried to Mr. Mc George Bundy

This letter was sent according to the standard procedures upon the election of a new President.

ORIGINAL DESTROYED FILE White House